

New theater troupe stages weekend shows

Posted Jan. 25, 2001, at 7:28 a.m.

BREWER – A new troupe, Ten Bucks Theatre Company, is presenting a weekend production of “The Real Inspector Hound.”

The Bangor-based organization will perform Tom Stoppard’s comedy today through Sunday in the auditorium at Brewer Middle School.

The new company is the result of a grass-roots effort by local actors to find different ways to explore stagecraft, doing theater for fun, and entertaining audiences affordably.

The company has nine members with a variety of theater experience, with more signing on. The director is Sharon Zolper.

Membership in the troupe will be flexible, varying with interest and availability.

Established regional theaters, including Penobscot, Northern Lights and Acadia Repertory, also have been supportive.

Performances of “The Real Inspector Hound” will be presented at 8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, and 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. For information or tickets, call 990-4940. Tickets also are available at The Grasshopper Shop in Bangor.

<http://archive.bangordailynews.com/2001/01/25/new-theater-troupe-stages-weekend-shows/>
printed on July 28, 2014